

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTES

By all the rules that govern commercial ventures Book-Auction Records should have been an utter failure. The very title of its first volume—Sale Records—was inadequate, since it did not indicate what class of sales was recorded. The editorial department—not then, I may state, under my own direction—did not give satisfaction to bibliographical experts, while, to crown all, at the very moment that I took over the editorship myself and altered the title to its present form my health succumbed to the effects of prolonged insomnia, and the publication was suspended for a whole twelvemonth. At the expiration of that time I resumed my work, and issued the volume containing the records for the season 1904-5, and, not foreseeing that the volume for 1903-4 would be called for, the new volume was styled "Volume 2," in order to make the series continuous, whereas it should have been named "Vol. 3," in the sure and certain hope that its unborn brother would yet be brought to life. As every subscriber knows, that volume eventually made its appearance in January 1907, and as a "Volume 2" was already in existence, the volume of missing records was necessarily styled "Volume 1, Part 2." In order to be self-explanatory as to its position in the series this new edition of the original volume 1 is styled "Volume 1, Part 1." It is true the circumstances have already been stated in Volume 1, Part 2, but re-iteration is necessary in order that the position of the respective volumes in the series may be thoroughly understood.

When Sale Records commenced I was advised that a sufficient number of subscribers could be procured to justify the production of a yearly volume containing seven or eight thousand records, together with three temporary indexes, for the sum of six shillings, but when the rate of selection proved that the number of records would be about 20,000 the subscription was doubled, and yet was found to be totally insufficient to enable the venture to be placed on a commercial basis. To make matters worse a printer had been selected the resources of whose establishment were soon found to be unequal to the demands made upon it by the necessities of the case, and changes were made midway which did not tend towards uniformity of paper and type. It is a consolatory fact that, notwithstanding the unpropitious circumstances attending the first year of the existence of the publication, only a trifling deficit was shown at its close, and later this became a sufficient surplus. Since the production of the second volume there has been an unbroken record of progress and commercial success.

The reasons for printing a new edition of this volume are two. In the first place, the original edition has been out of print for four years, and many of the more recent subscribers have consequently been unable to form complete sets of the publication. Secondly, such a multiplicity of errors exist in that volume that long ago I determined that, when sufficient leisure allowed, it should be re-edited, and should take its place in the series in, it is hoped, a more perfect form than originally. Bibliography demands the minutest care and inspection, for it is full of pitfalls. There is not, to my knowledge, any bibliographical work that does not contain faults. What the conscientious bibliographer aims at is the perpetration and the perpetuation of as few errors as possible.

The Prefatory Notes which appear in Volumes 2, 3, and 4 supply all the information needed respecting the methods of compilation, and it need not be repeated here.

In the first edition many entries appeared under incorrect headings. In the present edition these errors have been amended, but a few escaped notice until after the proofs were passed for press, and these will be found at the end of the volume, under the head of "Addenda." A note of the fact should be made on the margins of each of the pages on which they ought to appear.

The three illustrations in this edition are from photographs taken especially for this purpose. Lawn Bank and its garden remains in precisely the same state as when Keats lived there. It is becoming hemmed-in by modern dwellings, but its present occupant is determined that so long as his lengthy lease endures it shall remain a place of pilgrimage of which visitors from foreign lands are always most courteously permitted a sight. It was at Lawn Bank that the poet wrote St. Agnes and Hyperion, and it was there that he commenced Endymion. On the lawn still flourishes the mulberry tree in whose branches sang the nightingale which inspired Keats to rush indoors and write the immortal Ode to a Nightingale; that Ode which Professor Morley said would last as long as the English language itself. It was here, too, that Keats wrote those heart-breaking letters to Fanny Brawne, "in which," says Mr. Armstrong, "he lays bare his innermost soul, and which are almost too sacred to be read by strange eyes." Some years ago a memorial-bust of Keats was unveiled in the parish church of Hampstead. The scheme for such a memorial was for some years promoted in America. It was in its earliest stages encouraged by Mr. Lowell and it was urged on and carried to a conclusion by, amongst others, Professor Charles Eliot Norton, Mr. Aldrich, and Mr. R. W. Gilder. A fund was opened, and a bust of the poet, executed in white marble by Miss Annie Whitney, of Boston, Massachusetts, was presented to the English people on July 16, 1894. A plate of that bust forms the third of the illustrations in this volume.

Finally, I may add that friends, and printers, and publishers of great experience, were unanimous in attempting to dissuade me from pursuing the publication at the time that I resolved to issue the second volume. "You will never be able to make it successful," said the friends. "The gap of a whole twelvemonth is fatal," said the printers. "Judging from experience, we consider you very ill-advised to continue," said the great firm of publishers; or words to that effect. But my wife said, "You know best; what are you going to do?" "Go full speed ahead," was my reply, and the result has proved that one is sometimes justified in acting upon one's own judgment, even when circumstances seem to point to the truth of the axiom that "fools rush in where angels fear to tread."

BOOK-AUCTION RECORDS

Where no sizes are given the books are 8vo et infra. Where no binding is stated it is understood to be the original cloth or paper covers, as published. The following is a key to the abbreviations :—

1st	=	first.	ills.	=	illustrations.
bnd.	=	bound.	l. g.	=	gothic letter.
b. l.	=	Black Letter.	L. P	=	Large Paper.
ca.	=	circa (about).	lib.	=	library.
cf.	=	calf.	m.	=	marbled.
cl.	=	cloth.	mor.	=	morocco.
cold.	=	coloured.	num.	=	numerous.
dup.	=	duplicate.	ob.	=	oblong.
e.	=	edges.	orig.	=	original.
ed.	=	edited.	P. P.	=	Privately Printed
Edinb.	=	Edinburgh.	plts.	=	plates.
edn.	=	edition.	port.	=	portrait.
engs.	=	engravings.	Pres. copy	=	Presentation copy.
ex.	=	extra.	s.	=	sprinkled.
fo.	=	folio.	s.d.	=	sans date.
front.	=	frontispiece.	ser.	=	series.
g.	=	gilt.	t. e. g.	=	top edges gilt.
g. l.	=	Gothic Letter.	trans.	=	translated.
hf	=	half.	v.	=	volume.
g. t.	=	gilt tops; same as top edges gilt.	v. y.	=	various years.
			vell.	=	vellum.
		w. a. f.		=	sold with all faults.

When a binding is stated to be, for example, mor. ex. l.e.g., the term l.e.g.—i.e. top edges gilt—implies that the other edges are uncut. When the other edges are cut the fact is stated.

In some exceptional cases—such, for instance, as a first edition of 'Waverley' or of a Keats' 'Endymion'—when the condition of 'original boards, uncut' exists, and accounts for an abnormal price, the description is given in full, without abbreviation.

In some instances autographs are stated in the sale-catalogues to be on the titles, or elsewhere in the books. When such autographs are not mentioned in B.A.R. it is only because they are of no known persons, and have no bearing whatever on the prices realized.

The right-hand column of each page gives the names of the auctioneers, (and the date of the sale), as follows :—

C. = Christie, Manson, & Woods.	P. = Puttick & Simpson.
H. = Hodgson & Co.	S. = Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge.
St. = Stevens.

S. Dec. 7 would therefore represent Sotheby's Dec. 7, 1902, while any month from January to August refers, of course, to the year 1903.

The spelling of B. A. R. is always that of the original titles, and apparent errors are not misprints. The same applies to some accents in foreign languages of which the type does not invariably permit; and, also, to old and erroneous punctuation.

 * Only two copies have hitherto appeared, of which the one sold last June for £240 bore date 1806, and was then described as First Edition.

- It was defective, having a piece torn from title. The previous example, dated 1809, sold for £225. The present copy was in clean and perfect condition, the sole defect being the cropping of one or two lower lines of text. The printed wrapper read as follows: "The King and Queen of Hearts with the Rogueries of the Knave who stole the Queen's Pies. Printed at the Juvenile Library, Skinner St., 1808." It is probable that Godwin acquired the remainder from Hodgkins, and added the wrappers at a later date.

- * A hitherto unknown dated book of Pynson, which must now be regarded as his first book with a date, preceding the Dives and Pauper by a year (according to numerals). It appeared, according to the signatures, to be absolutely perfect; and besides being in the original binding the fly-leaves consisted of a leaf and a half of Caxton's 2nd Edn. of his English Chronicles, 1484 (Blades' type 4). This volume may, for the present at least, be regarded as unique.

- * Unique, and hitherto unknown to all bibliographers (collation A to F in fours). The 1591 edition was sold at the Corser sale in 1870 for £21 15s, and is now in the Huth Library; the following note is attached to it in the library catalogue: "From the collections of Sir Francis Freeling and Mr. Corser. Believed to be the only copy known. Herbert describes an edition of this book by the same printer, in 1577. The only perfect copy of that impression seems to be that which was sold at the Roxburghe sale, but a very imperfect one occurred in an auction in 1877. It collates A-H2 in fours. Lowndes suggests that the initials S. R. of the translator may indicate Samuel Rowlands; but that is quite out of the question."

Shakespeare—continued

- The same, 13 by $8\frac{1}{2}$ ins., fo., old calf, printed by Thomas Cotes for John Smethwick, and are to be sold at his shop in St. Dunstan's Church-yard, 1632 Quaritch, £615 S. July 28
- * Not more than three or four copies are known with the Smethwick imprint, the ordinary copies having the name of Rob. Allot.
- The same, with the exceedingly rare Richard Hawkins title-page, port. by Droeshout, title and verses stained, and two small pieces torn off blank corners, but no text injured, otherwise a very sound and clean copy, old calf (12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ ins.), fo., printed by Thomas Cotes for Richard Hawkins, and are to be sold at his shop in Chancery Lane neere Sergeant's Inne, 1632 Morant, £850 S. May 18
- * Lowndes only knew of the Lennox example. All the ordinary copies bear the name of Allot. The two copies sold last year in these rooms, for £690 and £615 respectively, bearing the imprint of John Smethwick, were described as of "extraordinary" rarity. Referring back, however, to the last eighty copies sold (within a period of fifteen years) there was no copy among them with the "Hawkins" title. Including the two above referred to there were no less than six with the Smethwick titles, two with the Aspley, and one with R. Meighen; the remainder having the usual imprint of R. Allot. It is believed that only two other copies are known with this Hawkins imprint. The three second folios in the British Museum, and the Huth copy, the Daniel and Orford (sold for £540), all contain the Allot title.
- Third Folio, Comedies, Histories and Tragedies. Third impression (first issue), title, with port. by Droeshout, the verses by Ben Jonson opposite, both cut round and inlaid, remarkably fine, sound and tall copy, measured 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and in the most genuine state, fo., russ. gt., g. e., by C. Smith, London, printed for Philip Chetwinde, 1663 Maggs, £510 S. May 8
- * Copies with this date (1663) do not contain the seven Spurious Plays; in some a space is left in the title for the portrait, but in a few copies the portrait is engraved on the title, and the verses, in large type, are on a leaf opposite, as in the present copy.
- The same, wanted all before page XI (a port. of Shakespeare inserted), two leaves defective, and one or two mended, wanted a few leaves at the end (in the Tragedy of Locrine), more or less stained throughout, but an unusually large copy, measuring 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches, modern vellum, g. e., enclosed in a case, w. a. f., printed for P. C., 1664 Selden, £21 10s S. May 8
- * The publishers of the Fourth Edn. of 1685 appear to have considered the destruction of the Third Edn. so extensive as to entitle them to treat it as a nonentity, and say upon their title-page: "Unto which is added Seven Playes never before printed in Folio," though they had been previously added to this issue of the third edition.
- The same, wanted the title, port. and verses, and the last leaf, first defective, but the copy was a generally sound one, measuring 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in., four leaves in the "London Prodigal" misplaced, old calf, joints broken (1664) Tregaskis, £40 S. Dec. 4
- The same, port. by Droeshout, with verses beneath inlaid and mended, margins of title, dedication, and last 2 ll. mended (13 by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in.), fo., mor., g. e., w. a. f., printed for P. C., 1664 Sotheran, £99 S. June 18
- The same, russ., in leather case, 1664 Pickering, £307 S. Nov. 17
- * BB. IV-V cut into, 4ll. mended, and deficient of few letters. Size 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- The same, port. by Droeshout, with Ben Jonson's verses beneath, fine copy (12 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in.), russ. ex., printed for P. C., 1664 Pickering, £570 S. May 18
- Fourth Folio. Comedies, Histories and Tragedies, in 2 v., title mounted and defective, no port., and 3 ll. missing (13 $\frac{1}{2}$ by $9\frac{1}{2}$ in.), old hf. cf., w. a. f., H. Herringman, 1685 Sotheran, £9 S. Oct. 28
- The same, hf. bnd., pr. for H. Herringman, E. Brewster, and R Bentley, 1685 Tregaskis, £12 H. Oct. 15
- * Fairly sound copy, measuring 9 by 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Wanted port., title, and 1 leaf. Few ll. mended.

- The same, port. and verses inlaid and repaired, a hole in F ff (Hamlet) mended, and 6 lines of text made defective thereby, otherwise a perfect and very excellent copy (measuring 13½ by 8½ in.), but sold w. a. f.), mor. ex. - The same, title and last leaf backed, mor., by Bedford, 1685 Pickering, £90 S. Mar. 23
- The same, port. by Droeshout, verses by B. J., mor., g. e., (Riviere), small hole in fo., 83-4 (Hamlet), very fine copy, 14½ by 8½ in., 1685 Pickering, £101 S. June 18
